It costs $1,500.00 per day to run the Washington Area Humane Society. That includes the utilities, building upkeep, medicine, food, cat litter, veterinary services, gas and maintenance for our vehicles, insurance, postage, payroll, and everything else required to run a normal business. We spend no money frivolously. We re-use, recycle and we do not spend a penny on advertising. Several generous supporters pay for the ads you see and mailers you get. Volunteers print their own flyers and promotional material.

We have no steady stream of income upon which we can rely. We rely on you.

When money dribbles in, it's always spoken for ... already spent. How wonderful it would be to not have to sweat the whole year deciding day to day between whether to purchase flea and tick medicine or pay the water bill. That's what the 1,500 Club is meant to be — a reliable way to secure our annual budget.

Become a member of an exceptional group of supporters who pledge a dollar a day annually to our Humane Society.

Either fill out the form on the left and mail it back; email us or call us with your pledge.
